Re: Baltimore airtel, 5/17/68.

Referenced airtel requested examination of ashes for purposes of identifying burned items as Selective Service (SS) records. USA has advised that entire material need not be examined but that a representative number should be examined to identify them as SS records. In this respect, documents reflecting names of registrants and SS numbers would identify the material which was burned as official records which had been on fire at LB 33, Selective Service System. Therefore, examination should determine whether such specific information is disclosed.

Item two in referenced letter reflects that two cans with flammable liquid were submitted. Subsequent investigation disclosed that the nine subjects arrested remarked that that this liquid was napalm which was made by them from a handbook printed by the government.

Above for assistance in conducting required examination.

Dear

Your letter dated May 21st has been received, and your concern is understandable.

As you may know, with regard to the October 27, 1967, incident in Baltimore, Maryland, Reverend Philip Berrigan was given a six-year sentence on May 24th for Destruction of Government Property, three years for mutilation of Government records, and ~~two~~ years for interfering with the Selective Service System. The sentences are to run concurrently, and he was confined immediately.

The case involving both Reverend Berrigan and his brother, Reverend Daniel Berrigan, which occurred at Catonsville, Maryland, on May 17th is pending at the present time.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Would it be unreasonable for a disgusted citizen of this "society gone mad" to inquire what, if anything, the Justice Department intends to do about the Berrigan brothers, et al?

I have just read the newspaper account relating how these men and their accomplices stormed a Baltimore, Md. draft board office and burned approximately 600 draft files. Of the nine persons involved, six are past or present members of Catholic orders. This is certainly a sad state of affairs when members of the clergy instigate and participate in felonious activities.

I cannot help but feel that I, as a citizen who believes in law and order, would be tried and convicted of burglary or worse if I were to participate in such a crime. In some circles their crime would be considered treason in that it could be argued that their action aided and gave comfort to the enemy.

I'm sure it comes as no surprise when I say that the broad spectrum of the public has completely lost faith in the American judicial system. A firm stand against the present and future offenders of our laws could still reverse this loss of faith.

If you could shed some light on the federal position relating to this crime, I would be greatly interested in receiving your reply.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

Draft Records Nailed by 9

By William R. MacKaye
Washington Post Staff Writer

Nine persons, five of them Washington residents and six of them present or former members of Roman Catholic religious orders, were arrested in a Baltimore suburb yesterday after burning draft board records with homemade napalm.

Two of those arrested, the Rev. Philip Berrigan and Thomas P. Lewis, both of Baltimore, were convicted last month for spilling blood in the files of another Baltimore draft board.

Among the others arrested were three former members of the Maryknoll missionaries in Guatemala who are organizing a foundation to promote revolution in Latin America. They are Thomas Melville, his wife, Marjorie, and John Hogan, all of whom have been living recently in Washington.

Also arrested were the Rev. Daniel Berrigan, Father Philip Berrigan's brother, a poet and chaplain at Cornell University; Brother David Darst, a St. Louis school teacher; George Mische, a Washington peace movement organizer, and Mary Moylan, a Washington nurse.

Mary Murphy, chief clerk of the Catonsville draft board, told United Press International the nine emptied the contents of four file drawers into two large baskets. The baskets were then taken outside to the parking lot and set afire.

Each of the file drawers contained 150 individual draft records, Mrs. Murphy said.

The group was standing around the flames praying when policemen and firemen arrived, the Associated Press said. Most of the records then had been reduced to ashes blowing about the parking lot.

In a prepared statement which they distributed to bystanders, the group said, "We destroyed these records because they exploit our young men and represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class . . . We are Catholic Christians who take the gospel of our faith seriously."

Stephen H. Sachs, U.S. Attorney for Maryland, said the nine were turned over to the four hours after their arrest by Baltimore County.

He said they would be charged with destruction of government property, mutilation of government records, impeding Selective Service processes and conspiracy.

Sachs said it was too early to tell what impact the burning of the records would have on the board's operation. Donald S. Sharpe, an assistant U.S. Attorney said the files could be reconstructed from other sources but that the process would take "considerable" time.

Last November, inductions were halted for several months after the protesters damaged records with blood at the Baltimore board office. Drafting was stopped there so that no one would be unfairly drafted out of sequence.

Re Baltimore airtel to Bureau, 5/20/68 and Baltimore report of SA [redacted] 5/23/68.

Enclosed herewith is one copy of a press statement identical to the one previously submitted as enclosure to referenced airtel. This particular statement was obtained from a member of the press in Baltimore who had obtained it in a sealed envelope from [redacted]

In an effort to determine whether [redacted] had placed this statement in the envelope, it is requested that the statement be examined for any latent fingerprints for comparison with the prints of [redacted] if available. e

It is realized that a number of individuals other than the press member handled this document. The identification of others who may have handled it is unknown. However, it is felt that this examination is warranted inasmuch as a print thereon identifiable with [redacted] could implicate him further, considering an additional Counseling and Aiding violation.

Preliminary information has been received from the Baltimore Office to the effect that eight individuals led by Father Phillip Berrigan, the Catholic priest who has been convicted and is awaiting sentence on a previous incident involving the spilling of blood on Selective Service records in the Baltimore, Maryland, draft board office, today forcibly took records from a Catonsville, Maryland, draft board and thereafter burned the records in the street. According to a report received, a female Selective Service employee was cut during the incident. D

On April 16, 1968, Father Berrigan and three others including a Protestant clergyman were convicted on a charge of interference of administration of the Selective Service Act and destruction of government property as a result of their appearing at a Baltimore draft board in October, 1967, and pouring blood over Selective Service files.

ACTION

1. The Baltimore Office has initiated immediate investigation and is to keep the Bureau advised of developments.

2. The Crime Records Division has been advised in connection with possible press interest.

3. The Baltimore Office has been instructed to promptly furnish information concerning the actions of Father Berrigan in this incident to the district court in Baltimore where action concerning the sentencing of Father Berrigan is awaiting completion of pre-sentence investigation by the Federal probation officer.

SELECTIVE SERVICE ACT - DESTRUCTION OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

This refers to earlier memorandum this date concerning the above individuals who entered Selective Service Board Office in Catonsville, Maryland, today, removed draft files outside the building and set fire to them. Our Baltimore Office immediately initiated investigation. All nine had been held by the Baltimore County Police Department at the time the incident occurred.

Baltimore Office has advised that at 5:30 PM today, all nine individuals are being charged with Destruction of Government Property and Hindering Operations of the Selective Service Act. Complaints were filed in Baltimore and all nine individuals were taken into custody by Bureau Agents and as of 5:30 PM were en route to the Baltimore Office.

Although the identity of all individuals is not yet completely known, Phillip Berrigan is one of a group who entered a Baltimore Draft Board Office last October and poured blood on files. He and [redacted] have already been convicted for this violation and are awaiting sentence pending the outcome of pre-sentence being conducted by Federal Probation Office. Daniel is Berrigan is the brother of Phillip Berrigan and has been active in antidraft activities.

Draft Records Napalmed by 9

By William R. Mackaye
Washington Post Staff Writer

Nine persons, five of them Washington residents and six of them present or former members of Roman Catholic religious orders, were arrested in a Baltimore suburb yesterday after burning draft board records with homemade napalm.

Two of those arrested, the Rev. Philip Berrigan and Thomas P. Lewis, both of Baltimore, were convicted last month for spilling blood in the files of another Baltimore draft board.

Among the others arrested were three former members of the Maryknoll missionaries in Guatemala who are organizing a foundation to promote revolution in Latin America. They are Thomas Melville, his wife, Marjorie, and John Hogan, all of whom have been living recently in Washington.

Also arrested were the Rev. Daniel Berrigan, Father Philip Berrigan's brother, a poet and chaplain at Cornell University; Brother David Darst, a St. Louis school teacher; George Mische, a Washington peace movement organizer, and Mary Moylan, a Washington nurse.

Mary Murphy, chief clerk of the Catonsville draft board, told United Press International the nine emptied the contents of four file drawers into two large baskets. The baskets were then taken outside to the parking lot and set afire.

Each of the file drawers contained 150 individual draft records, Mrs. Murphy said.

The group was standing around the flames praying when policemen and firemen arrived, the Associated Press said. Most of the records by then had been reduced to ashes blowing about the parking lot.

In a prepared statement which they distributed to bystanders, the group said, "We destroyed these records because they exploit our young men and represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class of America . . . We are Catholic Christians who take the gospel of our faith seriously."

Stephen H. Sachs, U.S. Attorney for Maryland, said the nine were turned over to the FBI four hours after their arrest by Baltimore County police.

He said they would be charged with destruction of government property, mutilation of government records, impeding Selective Service processes and conspiracy.

Sachs said it was too early to tell what impact the burning of the records would have on the board's operation. Donald S. Sharpe, an assistant U.S. Attorney said the files could be reconstructed from other sources but that the process would take "considerable" time.

Last November, inductions were halted for several months after the protesters damaged records with blood at the Baltimore board office. Drafting was stopped there so that no one would be unfairly drafted out of sequence.

PRESS STATEMENT (for immediate release)

+ 1-2-68
+ 1-2-68

Today, May 17, 1968, we enter Local Board No. 33 at Catonsville, Md., to seize the Selective Service records and burn them outside with napalm manufactured by ourselves from a recipe in the Special Forces Handbook, published by the U.S. government.

We, American citizens, have worked with the Poor in the ghetto and abroad. In the course of our Christian ministry we have watched our country produce more victims than an army of us could console or restore. Two of us face immediate sentencing for similar acts against Selective Service. All of us identify with the victims of American oppression all over the world. We submit voluntarily to their involuntary fate.

We use napalm on these draft records because napalm has burned people to death in Vietnam, Guatemala and Peru; and because it may be used on American ghettos. We destroy these draft records not only because they exploit our young men, but because these records represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class of America. Their power threatens the peace of the world and is aloof of public dissent and parliamentary process. The draft reduces young men to cost efficiency items. The rulers of America want their global wars fought as cheaply as possible.

Above all, our protest attempts to illustrate why our country is torn at home and is harassed abroad by enemies of its own creation. America has become an empire and history's richest nation. Representing only 6% of the world's people, America controls half of the world's productive wealth and sixty percent of its finance. The U.S. holds North and South America in an economic vise. In ten years time American industry in Europe will be the third greatest industrial power in the world, with only the United States and the Soviet Union being larger. U.S. foreign profits run substantially higher than domestic profits as industry flees abroad under government patronage and the protection of the CIA, military, counter insurgency and conflict-management teams.

The military supports the economic system by joining with the business and political sectors to form the triumvirate of power in this technocratic empire. With our annual budget of $80 billion plus, the military now controls over half of the Federal property in the world (53% or $183 billion). U.S. overkill capacity and conventional weaponry exceeds that of the military might of the entire world.

Peace negotiations with the North Vietnamese have begun in Paris. Along with other Americans we hope a settlement will be reached, thus sparing the Vietnamese a useless prolongation of their suffering. However, this alone will not solve America's problems. The Vietnam War could end tomorrow and yet leave the quality of society and America's role in the world virtually unchanged. Thailand, Laos and the Dominican Republic have already been Vietnams. Guatemala, the Canal Zone, Bolivia and Peru could be Vietnams overnight. Meanwhile, the colonies at home rise in rage and destructiveness. The black people of America have concluded that after 300 years, their acceptance as human beings is long overdue.

Injustice is the great catalyst of revolution. A nation that found life through revolution has now become the world's number one counterrevolutionary force, not because American people would have it that way, but because the rich choose to defend their power and wealth. The masters of the trusts and corporate giants, along with their representatives in Washington, must learn the hard lessons of justice, or a country may be swept away and humanity with it.

We believe some property has no right to exist. Hitler's gas ovens, Stalin's concentration camps, atomic-bacteriological-chemical weaponry, files of conscription and slum properties are examples having no right to existence. While people starve for bread and lack decent housing the rich debase themselves with comfort paid for by the misery of the poor.

We are Catholic Christians who take the Gospel of our Faith seriously. We hail the recent Papal Encyclical, "The Development of Peoples". Quotes such as the following give us hope:

- #23 No one is justified in keeping for his exclusive use what he does not need, when others lack necessities.
- #31 A revolutionary uprising - save where there is open manifest and long standing tyranny which does great damage to fundamental personal rights and dangerous harm to the common good of the country - produces new injustices, throws more elements out of balance and brings on new disasters.
- #32 We want to be clearly understood: the present situation must be faced with courage, and the injustices linked with it must be fought against and overcome. Development demands bold transformations, innovations that go deep. Urgent reforms should be undertaken without delay. It is for each one to take his share in them with generosity, particularly those whose education, position and opportunities afford them wide scope of action.
- #47 It is a question of building a world where every man, no matter what his race, religion or nationality, can live a fully human life, freed from slavery imposed on him by other men or by natural forces; a world where the poor man Lazarus can sit down at the same table with the rich man.
- #80 The hour for action has now sounded. At stake are the survival of so many innocent children and for so many families overcome by misery, the access to conditions fit for human beings; at stake are the peace of the world and the future of civilization.

At the same time, we confront the Catholic Church, other Christian bodies and the synagogues of America with their silence and cowardice in face of our country's crimes. We are convinced that the religious bureaucracy in this country is racist, is an accomplice in war and is hostile to the poor. In utter fidelity to our Faith, we indict the religious leaders and their followers for their failure to serve our country and mankind.

Finally, we are appalled by the ruse of the American ruling class invoking the cry for "Law and Order" to mask and perpetuate injustice. Let our President and the pillars of society speak of "Law and Justice", and back up their words with deeds and there will be "Order".-- We have pleaded, spoken, marched and nursed the victims of their injustice. Now this injustice must be faced, and this we intend to do, with whatever strength of mind, body and grace that God will give us. May God have mercy on our nation.

Vietnamese a useless prolongation of their suffering. However, this alone will not solve America's problems. The Vietnam War could end tomorrow and yet leave the quality of society and America's role in the world virtually unchanged. Thailand, Laos and the Dominican Republic have already been Vietnams. Guatemala, the Canal Zone, Bolivia and Peru could be Vietnams overnight. Meanwhile, the colonies at home rise in rage and destructiveness. The black people of America have concluded that after 360 years, their acceptance as human beings is long overdue.

Injustice is the great catalyst of revolution. A nation that found life through revolution has now become the world's number one counterrevolutionary force, not because American people would have it that way, but because the rich choose to defend their power and wealth. The masters of the trusts and corporate giants, along with their representatives in Washington, must learn the hard lessons of justice, or a country may be swept away and humanity with it.

We believe some property has no right to exist. Hitler's gas ovens, Stalin's concentration camps, atomic-bacteriological-chemical weaponry, files of conscription and slum properties are examples having no right to existence. While people starve for bread and lack decent housing the rich debase themselves with comfort paid for by the misery of the poor.

We are Catholic Christians who take the Gospel of our Faith seriously. We hail the recent Papal Encyclical, "The Development of Peoples". Quotes such as the following give us hope:

#23 No one is justified in keeping for his exclusive use what he does not need, when others lack necessities.

#31 A revolutionary uprising - save where there is open manifest and long standing tyranny which does great damage to fundamental personal rights and dangerous harm to the common good of the country - produces new injustices, throws more elements out of balance and brings on new disasters.

#32 We want to be clearly understood: the present situation must be faced with courage, and the injustices linked with it must be fought against and overcome. Development demands bold transformations, innovations that go deep. Urgent reforms should be undertaken without delay. It is for each one to take his share in them with generosity, particularly those whose education, position and opportunities afford them wide scope of action.

#47 It is a question of building a world where every man, no matter what his race, religion or nationality, can live a fully human life, freed from slavery imposed on him by other men or by natural forces; a world where the poor man Lazarus

dies and the synagogues of America with their silence and cowardice in face of our country's crimes. We are convinced that the religious bureaucracy in this country is racist, is an accomplice in war and is hostile to the poor. In utter fidelity to our Faith, we indict the religious leaders and their followers for their failure to serve our country and mankind.

Finally, we are appalled by the [redacted] of the American ruling class invoking the cry for "Law and Order" to mask and perpetuate injustice. Let our President and the pillars of society speak of "Law and Justice", and back up their words with deeds and there will be "Order".-- We have pleaded, spoken, marched and nursed the victims of their injustice. Now this injustice must be faced, and this we intend to do, with whatever strength of mind, body and grace that God will give us. May God have mercy on our nation.

Today, May 17, 1968, we enter Local Board No. 33 at Grtonsவில், Md., to seize the Selective Service records and burn them outside with napalm manufactured by ourselves from a recipe in the Special Forces Handbook, published by the U.S. government.

We, American citizens, have worked with the Poor in the ghatto and abroad. In the course of our Christian ministry we have watched our country produce more victims than an army of us could console or restore. Two of us face immediate sentencing for similar acts against Selective Service. All of us identify with the victims of American oppression all over the world. We submit voluntarily to their involuntary fate.

We use napalm on these draft records because napalm has burned people to death in Vietnam, Guatemala and Peru; and because it may be used on America's ghettos. We destroy these draft records not only because they exploit our young men, but because these records represent misplaced power, concentrated in the ruling class of America. Their power threatens the peace of the world and is aloof of public dissent and parliamentary process. The draft reduces young men to cost efficiency items. The rulers of America want their global wars fought as cheaply as possible.

Above all, our protest attempts to illustrate why our country is torn at home and is harrassed abroad by enemies of its own creation. America has become an empire and history's richest nation. Representing only 6% of the world's people, America controls half of the world's productive wealth and sixty percent of its finance. The U.S. holds North and South America in an economic vise. In ten years time American industry in Europe will be the third greatest industrial power in the world, with only the United States and the Soviet Union being larger. U.S. foreign profits run substantially higher than domestic profits so industry flees abroad under government patronage and the protection of the CIA, military, counter insurgency and conflict-management teams.

The military supports the economic system by joining with the business and political sectors to form the triumvirate of power in this technocratic empire. With our annual budget of $80 billion plus, the military now controls over half of the Federal property in the world (53% or $183 billion). U.S. overkill capacity and conventional weaponry exceeds that of the mili-

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1Date May 22, 1968

At 1:26 pm on May 17, 1968, SA PAUL M. GRIBER arrived at the parking lot of the Knights of Columbus Building of Frederick Road and Beaumont Avenue, where Local Board #33 is located in the second floor of the 3 story wood frame building.

Members of the Baltimore County Police Bureau and firemen from the Catonsville Station of the Baltimore County Fire Bureau were observed in the parking lot situated on the Northeast side of the building where they had isolated a mound of burned material in the center of the parking lot which covered an area of about 6 feet. There were also two empty wire trash burning baskets on the mound. The fire had been extinguished by the police.

Two uncapped one gallon cans, which were partially filled with an unknown liquid were observed on the ground about 15 feet from the burned material. One large cap was found about 10 feet from the burned material. A leaflet concerning the protest of use of Napalm was near the cans. One small fire extinguisher was found about 10 feet from the mound of ashes. Photographs of the burned area and the building were taken by SA PAUL M. GRIBER.

The following items were collected by SA [redacted] [redacted] from the parking lot of the above mentioned area:

The filing cabinets of Local Board Number 33, Patterson and Beaumont Avenues, from which files had been removed and burned on that date, were processed for latent fingerprints.

There were six 4-drawer cabinets along the wall inside the drawer. Considering the cabinets from left to right, facing them, as numbers 1 through 6, and the drawers in each cabinet from top to bottom as numbers 1 through 4, files were taken from Cabinet Number 1, drawer Number 1; cabinet number 2, drawer number 2; cabinet number 3, drawer number 1; cabinet number 5, drawer number 1.

Latent fingerprints and plain prints of possible value for comparison purposes were obtained from cabinet number 1, drawer number 1; cabinet number 3, drawer number 1; and cabinet number 5, drawer number 1. No prints of value were found on cabinet number 2, drawer number 2.

The fingerprints were photographed and lifted. The photographs and lifts will be retained in the file.

The nine individuals who identified themselves to Sergeant [] as being responsible for the burning of Selective Service records in the parking lot at the Knights of Columbus Building, Frederick Road and Beaumont Avenue, on May 17, 1968, were taken into custody by the Baltimore County Police Bureau at the scene and transported to the Wilkens Station where they were held until being released to the FBI that same day. They were arrested for "malicious destruction of property;" however, no formal charge was pressed since at the time of their arrest it was not known whether they would be held on this local charge or held for Federal authorities.

[] the State's Attorney for Baltimore County, had been advised of the arrest but had not ordered any specific local charges to be placed against these nine individuals.

Upon being advised by Special Agent [] that the United States Attorney at Baltimore authorized prosecution of all nine individuals for violation of the Selective Service Act, Captain BRADLEY stated that in view of this, no specific local charge will be pressed at this time and that he would immediately release all nine individuals to the custody of the FBI at the Wilkens Station where they were then located. Captain BRADLEY further stated that the State's Attorney may later file a detainer against these individuals in the event local prosecution is contemplated.

[redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, displayed to SA [redacted] the file drawers from which Selective Service records had been removed by the individuals who entered this office this date. These drawers contained files of registrants in the following categories:

Those available for induction; those whose induction was postponed; those who had been ordered for induction; those who had reported for induction but whose papers had not been returned from the induction station; those classified II-A; and those classified I-Y.

One file drawer contained the files of registrants in all of the above described categories other than the II-A and I-Y classifications. Approximately 9/10ths of the files in this particular drawer had been removed.

Approximately 3/4ths of the files in the drawer containing the I-Y classifications had been removed. Also, files in another drawer containing I-Y classifications were practically all removed.

Approximately 600 files had been removed by these individuals. Local Board #33 has approximately 13,500 registrants.

When she asked what they wanted, the clergyman stated: "We're clergymen to prevent war", and other individuals entered the office immediately thereafter. Two women in this group approached the two other female clerks. The one short stout male proceeded to the second file cabinet and began removing files and placing them in the wire basket. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

b6
b7c1Date 5/20/68

On the afternoon of this date, [redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, was interviewed by representatives of various news media. [redacted] gave the following account of the events of that day:

She was at her desk in the office when one man came in. She was asking whether she could help him when another man came in. All at once a group came into the office; one was carrying a wire trash burner.

They started dumping files from the file cabinets into the trash burner, and she tried to prevent them from doing so, but one of the men stopped her. As they were leaving with the trash basket--which was quite heavy, it took two of them to carry it--she grabbed it to try to stop them, but they wrested it away from her.

During the incident, the men kept saying, "Don't fight," "we don't mean you any bodily harm," and "you are doing these boys (presumably the registrants) harm." [redacted] meanwhile, pleaded with them not to take the files.

The entire incident did not last over five minutes. The removal of the files has seriously disrupted the work of the board, and it will require many hours of work to reconstruct the files. In addition, the removal of the files did a great injustice to the registrants, many of whom had gone to a great deal of trouble and expense to obtain statements from doctors and employers and had made plans based on their classifications. The disruption of the files did the boys as much harm as it did the board.

There is no likelihood that any of the registrants will be "lost" as a result of this action, as there are duplicate lists available at the board and/or at State Headquarters which will permit reconstruction of the files.

Files were taken from four drawers. As a rough estimate, there are about 150 files in each drawer. All of the files in all four drawers were not removed. Give or take some, there were possibly 500 to 600 files removed.

[redacted] part-time clerk, Local Board #33, Frederick and Beaumont Avenues, telephone (301) 747-3766, furnished the following information:

She resides at [redacted] Baltimore, Maryland 21228, telephone [redacted]

Some time today, probably shortly before 1:00 p.m., perhaps 12:50 to 12:55 p.m., she was in the office of Local Board #33, checking the classification book. This book is on a table against the wall opposite the doorway. [redacted] was standing at this table, bent over the book, with her back to the door.

[redacted] the Clerk of Local Board #33, and [redacted] another part-time clerk, were also present in the office at this time.

As [redacted] was looking at the book, a woman walked behind her. She knew it was a woman because looking down behind her she could see this individual's skirt and legs.

At almost the same time, she heard [redacted] say something to the effect, "can I help you?" and then, "what do you people want?" [redacted] then said something like, "Please let's go outside." She also heard someone say something to the effect that "We are all from the clergy" or "from some religious group".

At this point, [redacted] turned and saw a number of persons in the room, including a man carrying a wire burning basket. She immediately sensed that something was wrong, and went to the telephone, intending to call for help. However, one of the female members of the group, a red-haired woman, seized [redacted] pushed her into a chair, and forcibly restrained her from using the telephone.

from her [redacted] replaced it in the cradle. The clergyman told her, "do [redacted] do that, we won't hurt you." [redacted] replied, "hurt me or not, it's my job", and she continued to struggle with the red-haired woman. The clergyman told [redacted] that she was doing wrong and "doing harm to these boys" (presumably meaning the registrants).

While [redacted] was struggling with the red-haired woman, another woman had placed herself in front of [redacted] who was at her desk in the rear corner of the room. This woman had placed her hand against the wall, and kept [redacted] from leaving her desk.

At the same time, [redacted] struggled with male members of the group who were [redacted] file cabinets, removing files from the drawers and [redacted] them in the burning basket. In addition to the clergyman who had taken the telephone from [redacted] there was at least one other clergyman in the group around [redacted] a man in a short-sleeved white shirt, and another man that she could not identify as to whether he was a clergyman or a layman.

The telephone is by a window in the front of the office, and [redacted] saw some men who work in the building fixing a sign out front. [redacted] believed the men were [redacted] or perhaps [redacted] (phonetic).

She continued to struggle with the red-haired woman, and finally succeeded in breaking the window with the telephone and screaming to the men to call the police. She does not know whether the men heard her.

During the struggle for the telephone, the red-haired woman made several remarks to [redacted] to the effect, "Lady, please be nice, don't do this, we don't want to hurt you."

Finally, just after [redacted] had broken the window, the group began to leave. [redacted] saw [redacted] grab the wire basket the men were carrying out, and the men wrestled it from [redacted] and left. In the struggle, [redacted] received cuts on her hand and shin.

As the group left, the red-haired woman said to [redacted] "It's all yours", (meaning the telephone). [redacted] immediately dialed the operator and asked to be connected to the police or the FBI; she was connected with the police (she assumes it was the Baltimore County Police Bureau).

After reporting the event, [redacted] went downstairs (Local Board #33 is located on the second floor) and saw a large group of persons on the parking lot adjacent to the building. Included in the group were the two women and the men she had seen upstairs, and others. The persons were burning the files they had removed from Local Board #33 in the wire burning basket. [redacted] did not leave the building.

The police arrived while the files still were burning, and representatives of the press also were on the scene almost immediately. Included in the group [redacted] saw were three "seedy" looking, unkempt individuals who identified themselves to the police as "press". They flashed some sort of card which [redacted] assumes was a press card. She could not describe these individuals beyond stating they were white males. She saw these three around the fire.

[redacted] furnished the following descriptions of the individuals she saw in the office of Local Board #33:

Female who struggled with her. White; age possibly in late 20s; 5'5½" (based on [redacted] own height, which is 5'4½"); slim build, red hair; fair complexion, nothing unusual about her makeup; no glasses; brown and white dress.

Female who immobilized [redacted] White; age possibly in late 20s; a little shorter than 5'4½" (again based on [redacted] own height); short, dark, straight hair, medium complexion; no glasses; wearing dress or skirt and blouse, blue top, white skirt.

Clergyman who took telephone from [redacted] White; age indeterminate, possibly late 30s or 40s; no distinct impression of height or weight - appeared "normal"; hair gave impression of crew cut or short, predominantly dark with some gray; very clear, blue eyes; no glasses, clerical garb.

Other clergyman, who was at files near [redacted] White; age possibly in 40s; tall (taller than other clergyman); crew cut hair, predominantly gray, but gave impression that it originally was dark; clerical garb.

Coatless man who had wire basket. White; age possibly late 20s; shorter than the clergymen, possibly 5'8" - 5'10", broad face, impression of stocky build; dirty blond hair; neat goatee; fair complexion; no glasses; white, short-sleeved shirt.

Other male. No distinct description - white male, unable to state whether Clergyman or layman.

[redacted] pointed out that during the entire time the group was in the office, she was struggling with the red-haired woman. She could not recall whether there were more persons than the six she described or partially described.

[redacted] Assistant Clerk, (part-time), Selective Service System, Local Board Number 33, 1010 Frederick Road, Catonsville, Maryland, observed in the presence of Special Agent [redacted] at the Wilkens Station of the Baltimore County Police Bureau at a position of approximately 50' from the rear door, the nine individuals arrested earlier, as they exited the station to enter a police paddy wagon.

She advised as follows:

She identified the short dark-haired female as being the person that had entered the office of Local Board Number 33 earlier in the afternoon and approached [redacted] at her desk. At the time this individual entered the office of Local Board Number 33, [redacted] heard a voice state to the effect that members of the clergy concerned about Vietnam were present in the office of the local board.

[redacted] identified the bearded man wearing a [redacted] short-sleeve shirt as being the individual that [redacted] had observed earlier in the afternoon carrying a wire basket into the office of the local board and having subsequently carried the same basket from the office of the local board with records of the Selective Service System in the basket.

She identified the red-haired woman as the person who had prevented her from making a telephone call at the office of the local board that afternoon during the time that the records of the Selective Service System were being taken from the filing cabinets and placed in a wire basket and subsequently removed from the office. The red-haired woman had held her by the wrists and physically restrained her efforts to use the telephone in order to summon help.

[redacted] part-time clerk, Local Board (LB) #33, Frederick and Beaumont Avenues, telephone (301) 747-3766, furnished the following information:

When she was struggling with the red-haired woman (subsequently identified as [redacted] for the telephone at LB #33 on May 17, 1968, one of the males in the group took the telephone from her, replaced it in the cradle, and told her, "Don't do that, we won't hurt you."

At that time, she had the impression that the man was in the garb of a clergyman. She had no distinct impression of his wearing a Roman collar, or of his height or weight, but recalled a blue shirt or vest type of clothing; she does recall his face, and particularly his very clear, blue eyes. She [redacted] not know at that time whether she could recognize him again if he was in different dress, but she felt she could identify him if she saw him from the neck up.

However, when she was called to testify at the preliminary hearing before the United States Commissioner on May 21, 1968, all the defendants were in the jury box. Her view was such that she could see only the faces and upper parts of the body of some of the defendants; she immediately recognized the man who had taken the telephone from her. He was not in the garb of a clergyman, but she was positive that he was the man. (This was the defendant, THOMAS MELVILLE.)

[redacted] Head Custodian, Knights of Columbus, 1010 Frederick Road, having address of [redacted] Catonsville, Maryland, advised as follows:

He was working in the hall on the first floor of the building when he observed several individuals walking down the driveway and then he heard [redacted] Clerk, Local Board Number 33, Selective Service System, which is located on the second floor of the building, scream for help. He immediately called the police and told them something was happening at the draft board. He then went out into the parking lot and mingled with the crowd. Individuals formed a circle around a fire and after the fire started, they all started shaking hands with each other. Several attempted to shake his hand but he declined to do so. The crowd consisted of about 20 to 25 people and that approximately 1/2 of them, he thought, were photographers and reporters. Some of the males present wore beards and had long hair. There were two clergymen in the crowd, one white male, about 6' tall, gray hair, age 35-40, 180 pounds, the other one - white male, 5'7", 140-150 pounds, age 30-35.

Approximately five to ten minutes after he called the police, they came on the scene and those present made no attempt to disperse. The police immediately went upstairs to see [redacted] and then came down and mingled with the crowd. Shortly after the police arrived, a radio wagon came to the scene and took a group of the individuals away.

[redacted] observed two wire baskets, about three or four feet high, which he presumed were used to carry the material which was burning. He also noticed two cans, one of which said gasoline on the side, at the scene near the fire.

He asked one of the photographers how they got there so fast and was advised by this individual that they had a tipoff.

When he observed the fire, he went out into the parking lot and saw 20 to 25 individuals in a circle around a fire, in two trash containers approximately 3 to 4 feet high.

He did not recognize any of the individuals congregating around the fire but believed that approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ of them were photographers and reporters. He recognized two individuals as being priests because of the way they were dressed. He observed two women in the crowd. [redacted] 2402 Old Frederick Road, telephone 743-2444, advised that she is a librarian at the Baltimore County Library on the corner of Beaumont Avenue and Frederick Road. She stated that at approximately 12:30 p.m., she was sitting at her desk which faces Beaumont Avenue and looks directly onto the Knights of Columbus Hall, where she saw several men running across Beaumont Avenue in the direction of the Knights of Columbus Hall, and one man was holding a large camera on his shoulder, and another man was behind him with a large roll of wire in his hand, which was apparently connected to the camera. She stated that there were several other men, but she did not recall anything about them. She stated that shortly after this, she saw several persons on the parking lot of the Knights of Columbus Hall, and several of them were dumping papers into a pile. She said that she also saw someone pour a liquid substance onto the papers.

[redacted] stated that she then walked towards the back of the library and told some other women that she thought someone was burning draft records on the parking lot of the Knights of Columbus Hall. At this time, she, [redacted] and [redacted] decided that they would go over to the parking lot to see what was happening. However, she stated that immediately before leaving the library, she heard someone talking on the telephone which is located in the library, at which time she heard this man say, "Yes they did it, all nine of them are involved, our car is in a safe place, parked about a block up the street, we'll probably receive several phone calls about this."

She stated that the only observation she could make as to description, would be that she saw the man from the rear and did not get a good look at his face, and thus described him as follows:

Sex:	Male
Race:	White
Height:	5'5 - 7"
Weight:	170 lbs.

[redacted] stated that when she was in the parking lot where the draft records were being processed approximately 12:45 p.m., she did not notice anything unusual. However, she did notice a group of people. She stated that she also noticed several people whom she thought to be press and television personnel. She stated that when she first noticed people gathering at the Knights of Columbus Hall, she thought it rather unusual that there would be so many news media personnel on the scene and no police officers. She said that it occurred to her that the news media must have been informed of what was going to happen.

She stated that she probably would not be able to recognize anyone on the parking lot area, other than those getting into the paddy wagon.

[redacted] recalled that at approximately 12:30 p.m., on May 17, 1968, before there was any activity at the Knights of Columbus Hall, she recalled that a tall blond-haired white male with long sideburns was in the library wandering around in the adult section, and he then walked over to the children's section. She stated that she approached the man and asked if she could be of assistance. She stated that the man began explaining to her the reason he was carrying two paperback books and that they were his own personal property. She further stated that the man also mentioned the fact that there was no one at the door of the library to check to see if anyone was carrying out library books without having them checked out. The following information and observations were obtained during the course of the preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner H. ALLEN MEZGER.

[redacted] Clerk, Local Board #33, was the first witness. She described her duties, and stated that Local Board #33 had approximately 13,500 registrants. She related that shortly after noon, after she and the other two women had gone back to work, a man came up the stairs and entered the office. As she was saying, "Can I help you", another man entered the office. Then a great crowd appeared behind the first two men and entered the office. [redacted] began saying "Please don't all come in here, go in the other room", but all the individuals entered the small office. It was quite crowded.

[redacted] identified the first man to enter the office as PHILIP BERRIGAN, and the man carrying the trash burner as [redacted]. They all rushed over to the files, and [redacted] began reading the labels on the drawers. When he came to the drawer of files of registrants available for induction, he opened the drawer and began dumping files into the basket. PHILIP BERRIGAN said, "I don't want to hurt you", but he shoved [redacted] out of the way, away from the files. They then went into three other drawers, and again PHILIP BERRIGAN shoved her out of the way when she tried to stop them. She pleaded with them not to take the files.

PHILIP BERRIGAN and [redacted] took the basket and started to leave. [redacted] grabbed the basket to stop them, but they wrestled the basket away from her. In the scuffle, the basket cut her leg. Her finger also was scratched but she does not know how that happened.

[redacted] said that she thought there were five persons who entered the room, but that "they" told her she was mistaken. There were two women in the group, and a man wearing a lavalier or beads.

After [] lost control of the trash burner, the group left. She assumes they went down the stairs. [] then went back in the office and said, "Call Colonel HAYES". She then went downstairs, but not outside, thinking perhaps she could get a license number. She saw a fire, and a group of people standing around it. She then went back upstairs and said to the other girls, "My God, they're burning our records!" She could not identify the people around the fire.

From the inventory they have been able to make so far, [] stated all the I-A (available) files were taken; the files of persons who were to be inducted on June 17; the files of boys already processed (at Fort Holabird) for induction whose papers had not yet been returned; a whole drawer of II-A registrants; and about one full drawer and 3/4s of another drawer of I-Ys.

[] gave an estimate, which she said was just a guess, that as many as 600 files could have been taken.

[] Part-time Clerk, Local Board #33, was the second witness. She testified that she was busy looking at some records when she saw a woman with a skirt walk by on her right. At the same time she heard [] say, "Can I help you people?" and someone in reply mentioned the clergy. Then a group entered the office. One man in the group - the witness identified [] - was carrying a wire basket. When she saw the man with the basket she figured something was not right, and she went to the telephone intending to call for help. The red-haired woman - the witness identified [] grabbed her and tried to wrestle the telephone from her. As they struggled, whenever [] gained the advantage to the point where she was about to call, a man in the group came over and hung up the telephone. The red-haired woman kept saying, "I don't want to hurt you", "Don't do this". [] identified the man who took the telephone from [] as []

Continuing testimony, [] stated that as she continued to struggle with [] she saw two men who worked in the building outside, hanging a sign. She succeeded in breaking the window and screamed "Get the police".

Meanwhile, another woman - the witness identified [redacted] [redacted] was keeping [redacted] from leaving her desk. The witness noted that [redacted] is about 75 years of age and has a heart condition. She then saw the men around [redacted] going out with the basket - the same one that she saw carrying it in.

When they left with the basket, [redacted] said, "It's all yours", and [redacted] picked up the telephone and called the operator and asked to get the police and the FBI.

After calling the police, [redacted] went downstairs and saw the fire in the basket and people standing around, taking photographs, and shaking hands with [redacted] hugging each other. This was in the parking lot, perhaps a few car lengths from the building.

She identified PHILIP BERRIGAN as [redacted] the men who came into the office, and DANIEL BERRIGAN [redacted] as being at the fire. She identified two other [redacted] who were present in the courtroom audience as being at the fire and also being upstairs in Local Board #33 after the incident wanting to take pictures.

[redacted] stated that the only other person downstairs when she was looking out the window at the fire was one of the janitors, [redacted]

Upon showing a film at the hearing, United States Attorney STEPHEN H. SACHS suggested that members of the press position themselves in front of the screen so that they could observe.

The other two individuals identified by [redacted] and known to SA MC ELIECE as [redacted] left the audience and included themselves in the gathering of press members to observe the film.

Re Baltimore report of SA [REDACTED] 25-572981-11 5/23/68.

b6

[REDACTED] Investigation has disclosed that [REDACTED] and others met several hours before the draft records were burned on 5/17/68, later picked up an unidentified individual alleged to be a member of the press from BERRIGAN's hometown in New York, and then drove to the draft board where they parked until subjects had entered the building.

[REDACTED] was reported to have advised this group at the morning meeting and directed them to the scene of the crime. [REDACTED] is the subject of a counseling, aiding and abetting case in this office (BUfile 25-569289). He resides in Baltimore, is active in the Baltimore Inter-Faith Peace Mission which has an office in Baltimore, and also [REDACTED] the American Friends Service Committee office in Baltimore. These two organizations openly advertise draft counseling. Further, [REDACTED] was identified with the four individuals involved in the bloodpouring on draft records in Baltimore on 10/27/67 (BUfile 25-562535). He has refused to be interviewed.

In an effort to determine whether [REDACTED] and others are further involved, considering a counseling, aiding and abetting violation, Bureau authority is requested to check current available [REDACTED]

b6
b7D

It is noted that five of the subjects, captioned case, upon being arrested on 5/17/68 stated that they resided in Washington, D.C. Investigation to date has not determined their whereabouts prior to arriving at the crime scene. It is possible that they had met beforehand in Washington, D.C. and that communication was had with them by [REDACTED] and others from Baltimore.

Enclosed for Laboratory is a press statement which was given to reporter [redacted] of the Times Herald Record, Middletown, NY by [redacted] alleged to be the head of the Interfaith Peace Mission, 2523 Maryland Ave., Baltimore, Maryland. This press statement was furnished to [redacted] and other members of the press by [redacted] in sealed envelopes at Catonsville, Maryland, three minutes before "newsworthy action" was to take place at Local Board Number 33 in Catonsville.

Investigation in this matter would indicate that other individual such as the above mentioned [redacted] not only had prior guilty knowledge that Selective Service Records would be burned by captioned subject on May 17, 1968 but actually aided and abetted re captioned matter.

Accordingly the FBI Laboratory is requested to compare enclosed press statement with other documents known to have been mimeographed by the Interfaith Peace Mission, these documents if not already received by the Laboratory are to be obtained and forwarded by the Baltimore Office.

Result of examination:

Specimens Q8 and Q9 are additional mimeograph copies of the same statement as represented by specimen Qc7, which was previously submitted in this case. It was determined that the mimeograph Press Statements, Q8, Q9 and the original of which Qc7 is a copy, were all made from the same mimeograph stencils. It was not determined whether they were all prepared on the same mimeograph machine because copies cannot be associated directly with the mimeograph machine.

Specimens Q8 and Q9 will be returned to the contributors separately. Photographs have been retained.

DGP, SSA, 1948 - CONSPIRACY

Re Baltimore airtel to [redacted] 5/20/68 and Baltimore report of SA [redacted] 5/23/68.

Enclosed herewith is one copy of a press statement identical to the one previously submitted as enclosure to referenced airtel. This particular statement was obtained from a member of the press in Baltimore who had obtained it in a sealed envelope from [redacted]

In an effort to determine whether [redacted] placed this statement in the envelope, it is requested that the statement be examined for any latent fingerprints for comparison with the prints of [redacted] if available.

It is realized that a number of individuals other than the press member handled this document. The identification of others who may have handled it is unknown. However, it is felt that this examination is warranted inasmuch as a print thereon identifiable with [redacted] could implicate him further, considering an additional Counseling and Aiding violation.

Baltimore requested Bureau authority to check toll calls for telephones at residence of [redacted] the Baltimore Interfaith Peace Mission, and the American Friends Service Committee office in Baltimore, in an effort to determine whether [redacted] and others were involved concerning a counseling, aiding and abetting violation. Bureau authority was denied. The U. S. Attorney, Baltimore, is not interested in subpoenaing these records.

Investigation indicates that obviously others were involved in this burning incident, at least to the extent of driving the subjects to the scene of the crime. [redacted]

[redacted] has been identified distributing the press statement to news media, as well as alerting newsmen ahead of time. [redacted] also referred to the specific location of Local Board #33 prior to the incident, further indicating that he had specific knowledge of it beforehand. Others, including Catholic clergymen, also appeared to have known of the incident prior to its occurrence. [redacted] refused to be interviewed in the similar type violation (blood on Selective Service System files on 10/27/67, file 25-562535). Others, including Catholic clergy, refused to answer specific questions concerning possible knowledge of this incident.

Matter was discussed with U. S. Attorney STEPHEN H. [redacted] with the suggestion that a grand jury inquiry be conducted. Mr. SACHS replied that in retrospect, a grand jury possibly would have been appropriate; however, he feels that such an inquiry at this time, after indictment of the subjects, could be criticized as a "witch hunt". Mr. SACHS added that he was interested in a speedy indictment so that subjects PHILIP BERRIGAN and [redacted] would have been indicted prior to their sentencing for the blood pouring incident. Mr. SACHS further stated that he would further consider a limited grand jury inquiry if investigation further implicates [redacted] and possibly others.

On May 24, 1968, subjects were arraigned before Chief Judge ROSZEL C. THOMSEN, United States District Court, Baltimore. All entered a plea of not guilty.

Date June 7, 1968b6

[redacted] was interviewed at the Baltimore FBI Office and was advised as to the nature of this interview by [redacted] who identified himself as a Special Agent of the FBI and also furnished a waiver form. [redacted] commented at this point that he was well aware of his rights, did not desire to sign anything, but would volunteer information concerning his knowledge of the burning of Selective Service records at Catonsville, Maryland, on May 17, 1968. He advised as follows:

He is [redacted]-employed as a photographer and is also affiliated with [redacted] "Peace and Freedom News," a Baltimore newspaper which has as its byline "Baltimore's first underground newspaper". The May 23, 1968, edition of this paper contains a photograph of the Selective Service record burning incident also reflecting his name as the contributing photographer.

Approximately one week before the burning incident he was informed by [redacted] that an event was to take place which [redacted] should photograph. [redacted] did not elaborate on it but asked [redacted] to be ready to photograph this event. Approximately Tuesday, May 14, 1968, [redacted] told [redacted] to meet him at [redacted] apartment on Thursday morning, May 16, 1968.

[redacted] met [redacted] at the latter's apartment, [redacted] Baltimore, at approximately 10:30 a.m., May 16, 1968. In addition to [redacted] the others present were two or three representatives of "The Sun" newspapers and a representative from Ramparts magazine. He did not know the identity of those at this meeting other than [redacted]. Several representatives of WBAL TV Channel 11 in Baltimore also were present; but these representatives may have been observed by him on the street outside of [redacted] apartment.

[redacted] informed them at this time that they would rendezvous at the Hilltop Motel, which is located near the Social Security Building in Woodlawn, Maryland. [redacted] who drove a vehicle belonging to an unidentified friend, drove [redacted] in his car. At least two other cars containing the other individuals followed the car driven by [redacted]

At the Hilltop Motel, [redacted] went to the desk to inquire about someone apparently registered there. The others remained outside but later went in to the room occupied by this individual, who also had a female companion with him. He does not know the names of these two individuals, but heard [redacted] remark that the male represented the press from the hometown of one of the BERRIGANS.

The group only remained in the hotel room for a short time, then got back into their cars, and drove to Beaumont Avenue in Catonsville, Maryland, where they parked on this avenue near the intersection of Edmondson Avenue. [redacted] who was in the lead car, directed the procession to this location. [redacted] had a number of sealed envelopes which contained press statements describing the burning incident and biographies of those involved. He may have given them out prior to leaving the motel or possibly while parked on Beaumont Avenue. He, [redacted] did not get any of these envelopes from [redacted] did and [redacted] later observed this statement.

While parked for a short time on Beaumont Avenue, three or four cars passed by. He did not recognize the cars or the occupants therein, but did recall observing one of the occupants raise his fingers in a "V" for victory sign, after which [redacted] who was still driving, returned the sign. Several minutes later [redacted] drove off followed by the other cars and went directly to the location of Selective Service Board #33 at Beaumont Avenue and Frederick Road in Catonsville, Maryland.

At the time this group arrived at the scene the nine individuals who later were arrested for burning Selective Service records had already left the Local Board and were running toward the parking lot adjacent to the building where they set these records on fire.

[redacted] photographed [redacted] from the time the nine individuals were observed leaving the building toward the parking lot.

In addition to the [redacted] mentioned members of the news media and press, there was also a representative from a paper known as "The Washington Post" and known to [redacted] by the name of [redacted] believed [redacted] had his own transportation. A photograph by [redacted] of this incident also appears in the May 23, 1968, edition of the "Peace and Freedom" news.

[redacted] did not know anything about this incident prior to May 17, 1968, nor does he know of the origin of the press statement. He is of the opinion that [redacted] does not know of any additional information concerning this incident and believes that the only difference between the knowledge of the incident between [redacted] is that [redacted] was notified first of these two by [redacted] that the event was to take place. He further believes that [redacted] was notified by [redacted] since [redacted] writes for the "Peace and Freedom" news.

[redacted] was again interviewed at his residence [redacted] and was again advised of his rights. [redacted] stated that he would volunteer information concerning the May 17, 1968, burning incident but still did not care to sign anything.

[redacted] advised that on May 31, 1968, he left a total of 35 photographs at the Baltimore FBI Office for SA [redacted] who was out at the time. He stated that these are photographs of the burning incident on May 17, 1968, which he took on the outside of the building where Local Board 33 is located at Beaumont Avenue and Frederick Road in Catonsville, Maryland.

[redacted] upon questioning as to the owner of the automobile driven by [redacted] to the scene on May 17, 1968, replied that it is owned by [redacted] who also is connected with the "Peace and Freedom News".

[redacted] who was again advised of his rights by SA [redacted] at his residence, [redacted] replied that he did not wish to sign a waiver but again would answer questions asked of him.

[redacted] was informed that the records at the Hilltop Motel reflect the name of [redacted] registering on May 17, 1968, from Middletown, New York, driving a Ford station wagon, a party of two individuals. [redacted] replied that he then recalled the name of the individual in whose room he, [redacted] and others congregated on May 17, 1968, immediately prior to driving to Beaumont Avenue in Catonsville, Maryland, sounded like this name. He recalled that the male individual was referred to as [redacted]. He also recalled that the female occupant of the room appeared to have a different last name. [redacted] was under the impression that both of these individuals represented some newspaper.

He further recalled that [redacted] drove a Ford station wagon and that there was some discussion as to whether or not the WBAL TV Channel 11 representatives should put their photographic equipment in this station wagon to drive to Beaumont Avenue rather than drive the television truck which they occupied and which was quite conspicuous. He believed, however, that the television truck did continue on the journey to Beaumont Avenue from the motel.

[redacted] upon again being advised as to his rights, replied that he was aware of them but still did not care to sign the waiver. He furnished the following information:

The meeting at [redacted] apartment at approximately 10:30 AM. May 15, 1968, was attended by [redacted]

The latter three individuals represented the Sun Papers. [redacted] came to the apartment later than the others.

[redacted] were talking together in a low tone, seated on the sofa, while the others in the room seemed to be discussing another conversation. [redacted] heard [redacted] inform [redacted] that the incident would take place at Beaumont and Frederick Road in Catonsville, Maryland. [redacted] did not believe that the others in the room heard this particular conversation.

This group remained at [redacted] apartment waiting for the reporter from Rampart's Magazine. [redacted] was asked whether this particular member of the press could be identical with [redacted] who had been identified as representing the News Photo Service. [redacted] replied that the name of [redacted] sounded familiar and that he must have been the one who represented Rampart's since some unrecalled person remarked that they were waiting for the representative from that particular magazine. [redacted] further remarked that BRACK, in all probability, was covering this assignment for Rampart's.

The Representatives from WHA, including [redacted] were also there, but possibly did not enter the apartment. He seemed to recall that this group met the others on the outside of [redacted] apartment.

He further recalled that [redacted] and himself drove in an automobile driven by [redacted] and owned by [redacted] is known to him as being affiliated with the Peace and Freedom News. The WBAL Channel 11 television truck and a car occupied by the Sun Papers personnel followed them. He believes that [redacted] drove his own car and, if not, went along with the Sun Papers personnel.

The press member that was picked up at the Hilltop Motel in Woodlawn, name unknown, referred to as [redacted] went from the motel to Beaumont Avenue in the car driven by [redacted]. The female who was in the motel room with [redacted] did not go along. This female is described as white, approximately 30 years old, 5'3", 110 pounds, light brown hair, dark complexion, attractive.

[redacted] did not notice [redacted] a representative from the Washington Free Press at the scene until the burning incident was over. [redacted] obviously drove himself to the scene. Later, [redacted] followed [redacted] in his own car when the three of them went to the Wilkins Station of the Baltimore County Police Bureau where the nine who had been arrested were then held. [redacted] did not furnish any information as to his knowledge of the incident.

[redacted] is not certain as to exactly when [redacted] gave out the press statements in sealed envelopes. [redacted] probably, he did so while the caravan was parked on Beaumont Avenue. He did not recall seeing [redacted] after they were parked at the location prior to driving to the scene where the burning took place. Further, he did not recall seeing [redacted] after the burning incident. He does not know how [redacted] left the scene.

[redacted] was asked about an article appearing in the May 23, 1968 edition of the Peace and Freedom News entitled "A QUIET THING," and reflected that it was written by an individual with the initials "G.W." A portion of the article read to [redacted] is as follows: "Across the street, the library, it was cool and hushed as I went to make a phone call. 'What's going on?' 'They're burning draft files.'"

[redacted] replied that [redacted] is the author of this article. He claimed not to know whom [redacted] called but stated that the most likely person would have been [redacted] at the Peace and Freedom News Headquarters in Baltimore. [redacted] had no particular reason for this opinion and added that he had no information indicating that [redacted] was aware of the burning incident beforehand.

Date 6/5/68

[redacted] was interviewed in the office of Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] in the presence of [redacted] the attorney for the Evening Sun, a Baltimore newspaper, where [redacted] is employed as a reporter. He volunteered the following information.

On May 8, 1968, he received a telephone call from [redacted] who informed him that there was going to be a demonstration and suggested that they meet to talk about it. They met the following day, May 9, 1968, at 1:00 at the YMCA cafeteria in Baltimore. [redacted] informed him that there would be a demonstration, that the date of it had not been set, and that it involved primarily Catholics of national and international reputation. [redacted] informed that he would give [redacted] 24 hours notice, but there was no mention made as to how many would participate in the demonstration. This meeting with [redacted] lasted approximately one half hour.

[redacted] called [redacted] at his home Thursday, May 16, 1968, at approximately 6:15 p.m. informing him that the demonstration was scheduled for the next day. He instructed [redacted] to go to the apartment of [redacted] at [redacted] 10:30 a.m. the following day.

He went to this location at the appointed time where he observed [redacted] a Sunpapers reporter, and another individual unknown to him but who gave him the impression that he was affiliated with one of the so-called underground newspapers. Later [redacted] arrived.

At this point [redacted] called the Sunpapers to request a photographer, since he had learned that [redacted] the photographer originally assigned to him, who was at this apartment with him at the time, could not go through with this particular assignment in view of other work. He then learned that [redacted] would replace [redacted]

[redacted] was asked whether the nine individuals who were arrested on May 17, 1968, for burning Selective Service records and who were identified in a press statement circulated that same day, also identified themselves to him with the particular press statement circulated that day. [redacted] replied that these nine individuals did not actually identify themselves to him in conjunction with the press statement circulated on May 17, 1968, a copy of which he received that day. He explained that the nine individuals arrested were identified through their biographies appearing in this particular statement. In addition, no denial on their part was made as to their not being identical to the individuals mentioned in the statement. Therefore, it is standard procedure with the news media to accept the statement as coming from those identified therein; and therefore, he did so.

[redacted] was interviewed in the office of Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] in the presence of [redacted], the attorney for the Sunpapers, where [redacted] is employed as a photographer. [redacted] volunteered the following information:

Sometime around 10:30 a.m., May 17, 1968, he went to the location of [redacted] for a photographic assignment from his superior. He talked to [redacted] on the outside at this location. [redacted] informed him that he did not know what was going on other than a demonstration was to take place and they were to cover it.

[redacted] then arrived. They shook hands but did not converse. [redacted] a News Photo Service photographer, was also there.

Later a group of individuals came out of the apartment at this address, entered cars and drove to the Hilltop Motel in the Woodlawn, Maryland, section. He drove [redacted] in his car. [redacted] and [redacted] are known to him as co-employees for the Sunpapers.

At the motel, [redacted] came over to their car and said there was some delay. They remained there from twenty to thirty minutes after which they drove in a caravan to a location on Beaumont Avenue near Edmondson Avenue in Catonsville, Maryland, where they parked. [redacted] was in the lead car in the caravan and apparently was giving directions. [redacted] who is employed as a reporter for this station, was informed of his rights by [redacted] stated that he was aware of his rights after which [redacted] replied that he would consent to this interview but may object to certain questions in order to protect his client and possibly the identity of sources of information of his client. [redacted] stated that he would at the outset inform [redacted] of any questions that he would object to his client answering. [redacted] advised as follows:

Approximately May 8, 1968, he was notified by an individual (unidentified) of an "action" that would take place and that was newsworthy. He arranged to meet this source the following day at an unrecalled restaurant on Franklin Street in Baltimore. This source and another individual (also unidentified), referred to as "another male," met with [redacted] on May 13, 1968, at this restaurant for approximately one and one half hours.

Both of his sources did not know what exact "action" would take place but stated that it was scheduled tentatively for Friday, May 17, 1968, at midday. They informed him that 11 individuals were to participate in a demonstration which would be anti-war and also would be a religious protest primarily toward the Catholic religion. His sources further stated that a good number of the demonstrators would be clergymen some of whom had national reputations. These sources indicated that they did not know actually what would happen and also indicated that they were acting as intermediaries in order for the press to cover the demonstration. An arrangement was made to call MC GRATH to inform him when to meet again.

[redacted] was called at his home by one of the sources on Thursday night, May 16, 1968. He was asked to meet at 10:45 a.m. the following day someplace on Calvert Street.

He informed the source that he could not make it at that time. The source then remarked that they could meet at the Hilltop Inn near the Social Security Building in Woodlawn, Maryland.

[redacted] and his two photographers, [redacted] and [redacted] went to the Hilltop Inn around 12:10 p.m. on May 17, 1968. Apparently they were early since he did not see his sources so they had [redacted]. Later he saw one of his sources at this inn, which is also a motel. None of the nine defendants was observed by him at this location. His source did not tell him anything at this time. One of his photographers, while chatting with the source, asked the latter whether the event take place was to be on the outside or the inside. His source replied that most of it would be on the outside.

The source then remarked that "we" will [redacted] in a caravan to the spot where the event is to take place [redacted].

They left the Hilltop Inn around 12:30 p.m. His source was in one car with several other unidentified individuals. There were at least two other cars in the caravan which followed his source in the lead car. One of these cars was occupied by representatives of the Sun Newspaper.

They stopped on Beaumont Avenue in Catonsville, Maryland. At this point his source handed him a sealed envelope, said not to open it until after the event, and also remarked that the envelope "explained the biographies of the event." [redacted] presumed that his source handed a similar sealed envelope to the others who were also parked at this location, which was on Beaumont Avenue approximately one half block from Edmondson Avenue in Catonsville.

They waited there approximately ten minutes. At this time two or three cars went by. He could not identify the individuals in these cars but had an idea that one of them was PHILIP BERRIGAN since he had seen one occupant with white hair and resembling PHILIP BERRIGAN.

When the lead car, which had been occupied by his source, pulled out, the others in the caravan followed it. [redacted] recalled his source saying at this point that he "would be leaving now." He observed his source walking away in a different direction. [redacted] car then followed the lead car. They stopped approximately one half block from Frederick Road and Beaumont Avenue. [redacted] recalled that someone at this point remarked what sounded like "in that white house." Upon arriving at the white building located at this intersection, he observed a group of individuals in the parking lot adjacent to the white building. He ran to this spot with others at which time he observed someone lighting a fire. Up until this time he still did not actually know what was taking place but then filmed the event.

He said that he ask for more details, but the caller would not give him any and only stated that he would be sorry if he were not there. He said that he then drove to the announced location where he subsequently observed the burning of draft records by the MELVILLEs and the others. He said that after the draft records were burning, the subjects gathered about them and prayed and an individual whom he did not know passed sealed envelopes to the members of the press who were present. [] advised that the other two cars were occupied by approximately 8 other newsmen and television cameramen whose identity he could not recall other than one man represented Ramparts Magazine, others represented Baltimore and Washington, D. [redacted] apparently is interested in the peace movement and friendly with Reverend DANIEL J. BERRIGAN, and possibly the other eight individuals who were arrested for burning draft records on May 17, 1968. He, [redacted] has heard [redacted] mention this burning incident. On one occasion, specifically on May 16, 1968, he heard [redacted] remark to those to whom he was talking of an event which was to take place the following day. [redacted] remarked something like "you'll see tomorrow afternoon". He made this remark at the Wheeler House to several seminarians, although [redacted] could not specifically identify those who heard this particular remark. He does know, however, that [redacted] has talked to two such seminarians, namely, [redacted] a Jesuit scholastic now at Marquette University, and [redacted] a Jesuit scholastic still at Johns Hopkins University.

[redacted] has no direct knowledge that [redacted] was involved in any way in the burning incident but has reached the conclusion that he, [redacted] must have known about it beforehand, otherwise he would not have made this particular remark about an event to take place the following day.

[redacted] was asked whether [redacted] has talked to him about the draft burning incident. He replied that [redacted] did talk about it "after the fact". He was then asked whether [redacted] made any reference to the May 17, 1968, incident prior to that date. [redacted] replied that any such conversations with [redacted] were considered confidential. He explained that various conversations, including this particular subject, are considered made in a confidential relationship by two clerics. He compared such a conversation as that held between two physicians concerning a certain patient.

[redacted] was asked whether he was acquainted with one [redacted] who resides at [redacted] Baltimore. He replied [redacted] was unknown to him. He was then asked whether any information was in his possession which would give any indication as to whether the nine subjects were assisted by others in the burning incident. He replied that it is obvious that others assisted them since he could not conceive of their coming to Baltimore from various parts of the country, and performing this act without such assistance. He was asked whether he had any knowledge of the preparation of the press statement, a copy of which was shown to him. He replied in the negative. He was then asked whether he had any information as to possibility of the Napalm having been prepared in Baltimore beforehand. [redacted] replied that he had heard it was prepared somewhere in this particular area of Baltimore. He did not elaborate. When asked whether the Napalm could have been prepared at 2700 St. Paul Street, [redacted] replied "that is in this area isn't it".

On May 20, 1968, a copy of the press statement furnished to news media on May 17, 1968, by [redacted] was submitted to the FBI Laboratory in an effort to determine its origin. A similar type statement was circulated by Reverend PHILIP FRANCIS BERRIGAN, [redacted] and two other individuals when they were involved in pouring blood over Selective Service records in Baltimore on October 27, 1967. This particular statement and other material previously were submitted to the FBI Laboratory during the course of the investigation of the blood pouring incident. Specimens received 5/20/68

- Q1 through Q3 Three boxes containing ashes removed from the parking lot adjacent to the SS, Catonsville, Md.
- Q4 and Q5 Two cans with flammable liquid
